	Approved Spricates 2002/07/22: CIA-RDP80-00810A002400580003-9 Security Information REPORT NO.
COUNTRY	Increased Employment of KVP in East Berlin 25X1A
TOPIC
EVALUATION	see below 25X1A PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A
DATE OF COL	2.00
DATE OF COL	DATE PREPARED 9 September 1953
-	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMARKS_
Magazine Salama vina direntiplicaje dividence il successibilità nado cambro medicas e efectivadas albantere com a cambro esta
SOURCE	25X1X
	25/(1//
25X1X
2	On 27 and 28 August 1953,
1B 1B	Forces that, on 27 Augus, all VP personnel in East Berlin had been alerted. Source was not able to datermine the reasons for the measure. Beginning 23 August, increased employment of KVP and VP personnel was observed in East Berlin. Nine trucks, including and occupied by each 25 to 30 KVPs were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Warschauerstrasse, from where the vehicles continuously started for, or returned from, patrols via the railroad stations at Alexander Platz and Stalin Allee. Four trucks, including and each occupied by 10 to 15 KVPs, were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Weberstrasse; and truck occupied by 30 KVPs was at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Elsenstrasse. Jeep occupied by six officers was seen at Alexanderplatz, near Rathausstrasse, and three jeeps, including and each occupied by 5 to 8 KVPs or Vps shuttled between Stalin Allee and Alexander Platz. Each four KVPs, armed with model-44 assault guns, Soviet drum sub-machine guns and rifles patrolled both sides of Stalin Allee at a distance of 300 meters. In addition to the usapons mentioned, each man was equipped with a pistol and a rubber club. Personnel observed wore black-bordered black, red-bordered black and, a few, yellow-bordered black epaulets. At 5 p.m. on 28 August,
 1B	Forces that, on 27 Augus, all VP personnel in East Berlin had been alerted. Source was not able to datermine the reasons for the measure. Beginning 23 August, increased employment of KVP and VP personnel was observed in East Berlin. Nine trucks, including and occupied by each 25 to 30 KVPs were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Warschauerstrasse, from where the vehicles continuously started for, or returned from, patrols via the railroad stations at Alexander Platz and Stalin Allee. Four trucks, including and each occupied by 10 to 15 KVPs, were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Weberstrasse; and truck occupied by 30 KVPs was at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Elsenstrasse. Jeep 25 occupied by six officers was seen at Alexanderplatz, near Rathausstrasse, and three jeeps, including and each occupied by 5 to 8 KVPs or Vps shuttled between Stalin Allee and Alexander Platz. Each 25 four KVPs, armed with model-44 assault guns, Soviet drum sub-machine guns and rifles patrolled both sides of Stalin Allee at a distance of 300 meters. In addition to the weapons mentioned, each man was equipped with a pistol and a rubber club. Personnel opserved were black-bordered black, red-bordered
 1B	Forces that, on 27 Augus, all VP personnel in East Berlin had been alerted. Source was not able to datermine the reasons for the measure. Beginning 23 August, increased employment of KVP and VP personnel was observed in East Berlin. Nine trucks, including and occupied by each 25 to 30 KVPs were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Warschauerstrasse, from where the vehicles continuously started for, or returned from, patrols via the railroad stations at Alexander Platz and Stalin Allee. Four trucks, including and each occupied by 10 to 15 KVPs, were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Weberstrasse; and truck occupied by 30 KVPs was at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Elsenstrasse. Jeep occupied by six officers was seen at Alexanderplatz, near Rathausstrasse, and three jeeps, including and each occupied by 5 to 8 KVPs or Vps shuttled between Stalin Allee and Alexander Platz. Each four KVPs, armed with model-44 assault guns, Soviet drum sub-machine guns and rifles patrolled both sides of Stalin Allee at a distance of 300 meters. In addition to the usapons mentioned, each man was equipped with a pistol and a rubber club. Personnel observed wore black-bordered black, red-bordered black and, a few, yellow-bordered black epaulets. At 5 p.m. on 28 August,
 1B	Forces that, on 27 Augus, all VP personnel in East Berlin had been alerted. Source was not able to datermine the reasons for the measure. Beginning 23 August, increased employment of KVP and VP personnel was observed in East Berlin. Nine trucks, including and occupied by each 25 to 30 KVPs were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Warschauerstrasse, from where the vehicles continuously started for, or returned from, patrols via the railroad stations at Alexander Platz and Stalin Allee. Four trucks, including and each occupied by 10 to 15 KVPs, were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Weberstrasse; and truck occupied by 30 KVPs was at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Elsenstrasse. Jeep occupied by six officers was seen at Alexanderplatz, near Rathausstrasse, and three jeeps, including and each occupied by 5 to 8 KVPs or Vps shuttled between Stalin Allee and Alexander Platz. Each four KVPs, armed with model-44 assault guns, Soviet drum sub-machine guns and rifles patrolled both sides of Stalin Allee at a distance of 300 meters. In addition to the usapons mentioned, each man was equipped with a pistol and a rubber club. Personnel observed wore black-bordered black, red-bordered black and, a few, yellow-bordered black epaulets. At 5 p.m. on 28 August,
 1B	Forces that, on 27 Augus, all VP personnel in East Berlin had been alerted. Source was not able to datermine the reasons for the measure. Beginning 23 August, increased employment of KVP and VP personnel was observed in East Berlin. Nine trucks, including and occupied by each 25 to 30 KVPs were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Warschauerstrasse, from where the vehicles continuously started for, or returned from, patrols via the railroad stations at Alexander Platz and Stalin Allee. Four trucks, including and each occupied by 10 to 15 KVPs, were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Weberstrasse; and truck occupied by 30 KVPs was at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Elsenstrasse. Jeep occupied by six officers was seen at Alexanderplatz, near Rathausstrasse, and three jeeps, including and each occupied by 5 to 8 KVPs or Vps shuttled between Stalin Allee and Alexander Platz. Each four KVPs, armed with model-44 assault guns, Soviet drum sub-machine guns and rifles patrolled both sides of Stalin Allee at a distance of 300 meters. In addition to the usapons mentioned, each man was equipped with a pistol and a rubber club. Personnel observed wore black-bordered black, red-bordered black and, a few, yellow-bordered black epaulets. At 5 p.m. on 28 August,
 1B	Forces that, on 27 Augus, all VP personnel in East Berlin had been alerted. Source was not able to datermine the reasons for the measure. Beginning 23 August, increased employment of KVP and VP personnel was observed in East Berlin. Nine trucks, including and occupied by each 25 to 30 KVPs were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Warschauerstrasse, from where the vehicles continuously started for, or returned from, patrols via the railroad stations at Alexander Platz and Stalin Allee. Four trucks, including and each occupied by 10 to 15 KVPs, were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Weberstrasse; and truck occupied by 30 KVPs was at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Elsenstrasse. Jeep occupied by six officers was seen at Alexanderplatz, near Rathausstrasse, and three jeeps, including and each occupied by 5 to 8 KVPs or Vps shuttled between Stalin Allee and Alexander Platz. Each four KVPs, armed with model-44 assault guns, Soviet drum sub-machine guns and rifles patrolled both sides of Stalin Allee at a distance of 300 meters. In addition to the usapons mentioned, each man was equipped with a pistol and a rubber club. Personnel observed wore black-bordered black, red-bordered black and, a few, yellow-bordered black epaulets. At 5 p.m. on 28 August,
 1B	Forces that, on 27 Augus, all VP personnel in East Berlin had been alerted. Source was not able to datermine the reasons for the measure. Beginning 23 August, increased employment of KVP and VP personnel was observed in East Berlin. Nine trucks, including and occupied by each 25 to 30 KVPs were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Warschauerstrasse, from where the vehicles continuously started for, or returned from, patrols via the railroad stations at Alexander Platz and Stalin Allee. Four trucks, including and each occupied by 10 to 15 KVPs, were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Weberstrasse; and truck occupied by 30 KVPs was at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Elsenstrasse. Jeep occupied by six officers was seen at Alexanderplatz, near Rathausstrasse, and three jeeps, including and each occupied by 5 to 8 KVPs or Vps shuttled between Stalin Allee and Alexander Platz. Each four KVPs, armed with model-44 assault guns, Soviet drum sub-machine guns and rifles patrolled both sides of Stalin Allee at a distance of 300 meters. In addition to the usapons mentioned, each man was equipped with a pistol and a rubber club. Personnel observed wore black-bordered black, red-bordered black and, a few, yellow-bordered black epaulets. At 5 p.m. on 28 August,
 1B	Forces that, on 27 Augus, all VP personnel in East Berlin had been alerted. Source was not able to datermine the reasons for the measure. Beginning 23 August, increased employment of KVP and VP personnel was observed in East Berlin. Nine trucks, including and occupied by each 25 to 30 KVPs were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Warschauerstrasse, from where the vehicles continuously started for, or returned from, patrols via the railroad stations at Alexander Platz and Stalin Allee. Four trucks, including and each occupied by 10 to 15 KVPs, were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Weberstrasse; and truck occupied by 30 KVPs was at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Elsenstrasse. Jeep occupied by six officers was seen at Alexanderplatz, near Rathausstrasse, and three jeeps, including and each occupied by 5 to 8 KVPs or Vps shuttled between Stalin Allee and Alexander Platz. Each four KVPs, armed with model-44 assault guns, Soviet drum sub-machine guns and rifles patrolled both sides of Stalin Allee at a distance of 300 meters. In addition to the usapons mentioned, each man was equipped with a pistol and a rubber club. Personnel observed wore black-bordered black, red-bordered black and, a few, yellow-bordered black epaulets. At 5 p.m. on 28 August,
 1B	Forces that, on 27 Augus, all VP personnel in East Berlin had been alerted. Source was not able to datermine the reasons for the measure. Beginning 23 August, increased employment of KVP and VP personnel was observed in East Berlin. Nine trucks, including and occupied by each 25 to 30 KVPs were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Warschauerstrasse, from where the vehicles continuously started for, or returned from, patrols via the railroad stations at Alexander Platz and Stalin Allee. Four trucks, including and each occupied by 10 to 15 KVPs, were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Weberstrasse; and truck occupied by 30 KVPs was at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Elsenstrasse. Jeep occupied by six officers was seen at Alexanderplatz, near Rathausstrasse, and three jeeps, including and each occupied by 5 to 8 KVPs or Vps shuttled between Stalin Allee and Alexander Platz. Each four KVPs, armed with model-44 assault guns, Soviet drum sub-machine guns and rifles patrolled both sides of Stalin Allee at a distance of 300 meters. In addition to the usapons mentioned, each man was equipped with a pistol and a rubber club. Personnel observed wore black-bordered black, red-bordered black and, a few, yellow-bordered black epaulets. At 5 p.m. on 28 August,
 1B	Forces that, on 27 Augus, all VP personnel in East Berlin had been alerted. Source was not able to datermine the reasons for the measure. Beginning 23 August, increased employment of KVP and VP personnel was observed in East Berlin. Nine trucks, including and occupied by each 25 to 30 KVPs were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Warschauerstrasse, from where the vehicles continuously started for, or returned from, patrols via the railroad stations at Alexander Platz and Stalin Allee. Four trucks, including and each occupied by 10 to 15 KVPs, were at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Weberstrasse; and truck occupied by 30 KVPs was at the intersection of Stalin Allee and Elsenstrasse. Jeep occupied by six officers was seen at Alexanderplatz, near Rathausstrasse, and three jeeps, including and each occupied by 5 to 8 KVPs or Vps shuttled between Stalin Allee and Alexander Platz. Each 25) four KVPs, armed with model-44 assault guns, Soviet drum sub-machine guns and rifles patrolled both sides of Stalin Allee at a distance of 300 meters. In addition to the weapons mentioned, each man was equipped with a pistol and a rubber club. Personnel observed wore black-bordered black, red-bordered black and, a few, yellow-bordered black epaulets. At 5 p.m. on 28 August,